Astor Held Fundraising Reception

Rhinebeck, N.Y. – Astor Services for Children & Families held a fundraising Reception on Friday, April 16th at their historic location in Rhinebeck, NY. Proceeds from the event will go toward improving their facilities to meet the health and safety need of their children and families.

During the event where Senator Steven Saland was in attendance, Astor featured an art show by one of its students and a poetry reading by one of their Board members, Dr. David Crenshaw, who read from his book, “The Vision of the Heart, a Tribute in Poetry and Prose to the Healing Mission of Astor Services for Children & Families.” In addition, Astor held a silent auction of their children’s art work! Catering was provided by J&J Gourmet in Red Hook, N.Y. The evening was topped off with dancing to live music by The TopHatters Swing Band.

Astor would like to extend a special thanks to its major donors: Adams Fairacre Farms, Rose & Kiernan, Inc., The Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of New York, M&T Bank, and McCarthy’s Pharmacy.

Since 1953, Astor Services for Children & Families (formerly The Astor Home for Children) has been providing behavioral and educational services in a caring environment where children and their families find strength, healing, hope and trust. Now serving over 6,000 children and families annually, Astor’s current range of services to families in the Mid-Hudson Valley and the Bronx include: Residential Treatment, Therapeutic Foster Family Care, Early Childhood Programs, and Community-Based Behavioral Health and Prevention Services.
