NANCY M. SANTIAGO JOINS ASTOR SERVICES FOR CHILDREN & FAMILIES AS CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Santiago Brings More Than 25 Years of Experience as Accounting Professional in Nonprofit and For Profit Sectors

RHINEBECK, NEW YORK, FEBRUARY 23, 2017 - Astor Services for Children & Families, a non-profit organization that provides children's mental health services, child welfare services, and early childhood development programs in New York State's mid-Hudson Valley and the Bronx, has announced the appointment of Nancy M. Santiago as the organization's chief financial officer, effective immediately. In her position, Santiago will be responsible for managing Astor's financial risks, including financial planning, maintenance of financial records, relay of pertinent financial information to management and supervision of financial compliance.

"Nancy has the breadth of financial experience to grow Astor to another level of proficiency in its operations and service to our children and their families," said James McGuirk, executive director and CEO of Astor Services for Children & Families. "We are excited to have her on our team."

Prior to joining Astor, Santiago, who lives in Walden in the Town of Montgomery, NY, worked in Manhattan as controller for The Children's Aid Society, which serves children in need and their families in New York City's high-risk neighborhoods; as a consultant for Desire & Company CPAs, a firm that works with nonprofits; and controller for Daytop Village, one of New York's largest substance abuse treatment organizations, among other posts. She has a bachelor degree in business administration from Baruch College.
