RHINEBECK – In celebration of the holiday season, Astor Services for Children & Families will once again host its Holiday Fundraiser & Arts Festival on Friday, December 2, 2016, from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Set to take place at Astor's headquarters at 6339 Mill Street in Rhinebeck, NY, the event will honor Virginia Sibbison, Ph.D. and Arthur Schiff with the Rose Logan Volunteer Service Award for their long-time service to Astor. This award is given to those who have worked tirelessly as advocates of Astor's mission.

Astor is a non-profit organization that provides children's mental health and child welfare services, as well as early childhood development programs spanning from New York's mid-Hudson Valley to the Bronx.

The event will include hors d'oeuvres and spirits, music and raffles, along with the highlight of the evening: artwork created by children in Astor's Paint What You Feel Program (PWYF). The artwork will be curated by artist and PWYF guide, Patrick Madden.

Donations for the fundraising event are $50, $75 and $100, with a portion of each dedicated to Astor's children and family programs, including $35, $60 and $80, respectively. All donations are tax deductible as permitted by law.

Major sponsors include Adams Fairacre Farms, Catholic Charities, M&T Bank, Protiviti, Inc., Rose and Kiernan, Inc. and McCarthy's Pharmacy.
